A shotgun requires registration when:

1. It is semiautomatic
   AND
2. It has one of the following military characteristics:
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Banned Features</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Folding or Telescoping Stock</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thumbhole Stock</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Second Handgrip or Protruding Grip that can be held by non shooting hand</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fixed magazine capacity in excess of seven rounds</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>An ability to accept a detachable magazine</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
NY SAFE Act

Banned Feature

Telescoping Stock

~Illustration~
NY SAFE Act

Banned Feature

Folding Stock

~Illustration~
NY SAFE Act

Banned Feature

Thumbhole Stock

~Illustration~
NY SAFE Act

Banned Feature

Second Handgrip
~Illustration~
NY SAFE Act

Banned Feature

Fixed magazine capacity in excess of seven rounds

~Illustration~
NY SAFE Act

Banned Feature

Ability to accept a detachable magazine

~Illustration~